I have Jay getting me some information on the distribution of sleepers and daycabs but the January/February production of 75 units each will be Universal daycabs. 150 units total.

Will have the rest for you hopefully later today but wanted to get the early production to you as soon as possible.

Afternoon Sean.

The breakout of the $6.2M would be the following:

LGSI - $600K by check

Central Transport - $5.6M preferably by check

Talk to you next week.

Hi Kyle -

In reference to unit # 17910 VIN 3HCDHSNR3HL502645.

This unit remains on the Allentown PA (Bath PA) lot. Our proposal to settle is we Allegiance send the title back to Central Transport, in exchange for the storage bill against unit # 17910 VIN 3HCDHSNR3HL502645 to be forgiven as well as any further recourse against Allegiance and Navistar as it relates to this unit.

Please let me know if this works -- Once agreed upon, Allegiance will arrange for the title to be overnighted to your attention.

Thank you
Justin

Justin, we still have a lien on one unit, at our Allentown facility, that is being held for payment on the storage charges that accumulated last year.

Good morning.

Is there a plan to address the last of these units? Some have been ready for sold and ready for pick up for over six months.

One way or another this equipment will be removed from our yards before the end of the year. I would prefer that they are picked up by your teams but if we need to have them impounded that is, unfortunately, something we are prepared to do.

Please advise.

Good afternoon Justin,

We currently still have 19 tractors on our property, and as we stand today we have not received any payment for storage fees charged; to date the storage fees unpaid totals are $85,750.00 While I understand the ultimately is Navistar who is to move these trucks, your group has handled the deal. Justin, we have been doing business together for a decade now and I know we both don't like to work this way. What can we do to get this resolved so we can put this deal to bed and move forward together?

Kyle

At this time Allegiance has (10) 2024 HX stock productions slots scheduled for October 2023.

We still have time to change the order to meet Central's specifications.

Attached are specifications matching the specifications you sent to me last week.

(10) 2024 International HX - $175,393

The pricing is based on the attached specifications with a 5-year warranty on engine and aftertreatment with CARB. Any additional locals needing to be added would need to be quoted (Decals, Bumper Guards, DOT)

I would also like to review the specifications with the end user to confirm any changes they may want to make.

I would then list and price these change requests for your review and acceptance .

The production time and quantity could change based on stock availability , parts supply, and a possible mandatory order quantity reduction by Navistar.

Thank you.
